

UTown scholarships which are available to NUS undergraduate students residing in UTown's residential colleges include:

- Elaine Low Scholarship
- Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple Scholarship at UTown
- NUSS – Della & Seng Gee UTown Scholarship
- Steve Appleton-Micron Scholarship
- Tembusu Partners Scholarship
- The Ngee Ann Kongsu Scholarship
- Tin Ka Ping Foundation Scholarship

Elaine Low Scholarship

Ms Elaine Low, the daughter of Dato Low Tuck Kwong, is the Head of Business Development of PT Bayan Resources, Tbk. The Elaine Low Scholarship is open to all full-time NUS undergraduate students residing in NUS University Town with preference given to students residing at Residential College 4.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- preferably be from ASEAN and People's Republic of China (PRC)
- be residing at Residential College 4
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple Scholarship at UTown

Built since 1884, the Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple has a long history of philanthropy. They reach out to the needy in society through their gifts to charities, medical and educational projects. The Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple made a gift to UTown to establish the Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple Scholarship.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- be residing at College of Alice & Peter Tan, Cinnamon College (USP), Residential College 4 or Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

NUSS – Della & Seng Gee UTown Scholarship

Both Dr Della Lee and late Dr Lee Seng Gee are well known for their charitable and philanthropic contributions towards education, the underprivileged and the arts. They made a donation to set up an endowed NUSS – Della & Seng Gee UTown Scholarship to benefit the students residing at any of the colleges at University Town.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- be residing at College of Alice & Peter Tan, Cinnamon College (USP), Residential College 4 or Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

Steve Appleton-Micron Scholarship

To honour the life and contributions of the late Mr. Steve Appleton, CEO of Micron Technology; Micron Foundation establishes a named scholarship at UTown with a gift. Micron Technology, Inc. is one of the world's leading providers of advanced semiconductor solutions and systems. The Micron Foundation seeks to promote science, technology, engineering and mathematics education through support to educators, students and communities worldwide.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS Engineering undergraduate students in global engineering programme, electrical, computer, mechanical or chemical engineering with a preference for students with a specialization in Semiconductor manufacturing, design or related activities in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- be Singapore Citizens or Singapore Permanent Residents
- be residing at College of Alice & Peter Tan, Cinnamon College (USP), Residential College 4 or Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

Tembusu Partners Scholarship

Tembusu Partners is a private equity investment firm investing in growth-stage companies and generating optimal returns for both investee companies and investors. Headquartered in Singapore, its primary geographical markets are within Emerging Asia, comprising China, India and Southeast Asia.

Tembusu Partners Scholarships are open to full-time NUS undergraduate students residing at Tembusu College. The recipient must possess outstanding academic results and exhibit qualities as an “all-rounder”.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018, have completed at least 2 semesters of undergraduate studies and achieved a minimum CAP of 3.5.
- preferably be Singapore Citizens
- be residing at Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University’s prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

The Ngee Ann Kongsi Scholarship

The Ngee Ann Kongsi, a philanthropic foundation, has been actively involved in educational, cultural and welfare services since 1845. Founded by a group of prominent Teochews, the Kongsi's current activities are carried out regardless of ethnicity, language, religion and social status.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- be Singapore Citizens or Singapore Permanent Residents
- be residing at College of Alice & Peter Tan, Cinnamon College (USP), Residential College 4 or Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.

Tin Ka Ping Foundation Scholarship

Founded in 1982 in Hong Kong, The Tin Ka Ping Foundation is a charitable organisation which aims to promote social welfare and charitable work and has a special interest in education.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be full-time NUS undergraduate students in the Academic Year 2017/2018
- be Citizens from People's Republic of China (PRC)
- be residing at College of Alice & Peter Tan, Cinnamon College (USP), Residential College 4 or Tembusu College
- have strong leadership qualities and potential
- have outstanding extra-curricular activities records, and
- have GCE 'A' levels, Diploma from a Polytechnic in Singapore or equivalent qualifications (e.g. International Baccalaureate)

Scholarship value

The scholarship is valued at $10,000 annually and is bond-free.

General terms and conditions

- The scholarship is awarded on the basis of competition among eligible candidates. Recipients will be selected from among the best in each cohort. All candidates interviewed may be considered for all University Town (UTown) scholarships, where eligible.
- Interviews are expected to be conducted in June and July 2017.
- Interest and ability to contribute to residential college life and to the programme, leadership qualities and potential, co-curricular records and other capabilities will be assessed during the interview.
- The recipient must reside in a residential college at NUS UTown and is deemed to have actively contributed to residential college life. The recipient must fulfil the University's prevailing guidelines for scholarship award.
- The scholarship is tenable annually.
- Renewal of the scholarship requires the recommendation of the College Master and the approval by the Office of The Provost.
- NUS reserves the right not to award any scholarship if there are no candidates of sufficient merit. The decision of the selection committee is final. Enquiries or disputes surrounding its decisions will not be entertained.